PHMC Marker Search Report

10/30/2026

Fallingwater

Marker Number: 1994HM00020
Date Dedicated: 5/15/1994
Marker Missing: No
Marker Type: Roadside
County: Fayette
Municipality: Stewart Township
Street Address: Mill Run/Whites Bridge Rd. (Rt. 381) at Fallingwater Rd., Mill Run
Coordinates: 39.899460, -79.465580

Marker Text: Designed by Frank Lloyd Wright (1867-1959), this house was built in 1936 as a family retreat for Pittsburgh businessman Edgar J. Kaufmann. Widely admired for its design, it is dramatically cantilevered over a waterfall; it exemplifies Wright's desire to join architecture with nature. Edgar Kaufmann jr. presented the house to the Western Pennsylvania Conservancy in 1963.

Location Description: Mill Run/Whites Bridge Rd. (Rt. 381) at Fallingwater Rd., Mill Run

Marker Categories:
Buildings & Architecture
Professions & Vocations
Houses & Homesteads

Fallingwater - Commonwealth Treasure

Marker Number: 2000HM00016
Date Dedicated: 10/15/2000
Marker Missing: No
Marker Type: City
County: Fayette
Municipality: Stewart Township
Street Address: at site, Fallingwater Rd. next to visitors' ctr., Mill Run
Coordinates: 39.905610, -79.466220

Marker Text: The Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission declares Fallingwater a Commonwealth Treasure for all to protect and preserve as a unique architectural and cultural part of our history

Location Description: at site, Fallingwater Rd. next to visitors' ctr., Mill Run

Marker Categories:
Buildings & Architecture
Houses & Homesteads